

The Centre for Family Medicine

Family Health Team

Honours:

Inaugural Ontario Practice of the Year (2008)

Awarded by the Ontario College of Family Physicians

Geeta Gupta Equity and Diversity Award (2009)

Presented to Dr. Neil Arya; The award recognizes the achievements of an outstanding family physician (CFPC member or group of members) who has shown leadership and advanced awareness working in his or her practice and community to foster respect and understanding of a minority or under-served population.

Family Physician of the Year, South-West Ontario (2006, 2009)

Awarded by the Ontario College of Family Physicians

2009 – Dr. Linda Lee

2006 – Dr. Joseph Lee

Best Original Research Article, Canadian Family Physician (2009)

Lee, F. Joseph, Judith Belle Brown and Moira Steward, “Exploring family physician stress: Helpful Hints”, Canadian Family Physician, March 2009; 55: 288-289.e6.

Service Award for Geriatric Excellence (2009)

Presented to Dr. Linda Lee; SAGE was introduced in 2003 to formally recognize the outstanding achievements of individuals, executives, students, volunteers, teams, and organizations that have demonstrated excellence in positively influencing the health, independence, and quality of life of older adults. The goal of SAGE is to honour the outstanding achievements of those contributing to the field, while highlighting geriatrics as a critical area of health care.

Dr. Linda Lee - Recipient of the Janus Continuing Professional Development/Continuing Medical Education Scholarship (2008)

Awarded by the College of Family Physicians to teach and conduct research in Dementia and Mild Cognitive Impairment.

Marg Alfieri - Recipient of the DC National Volunteer Award (2008)

Awarded by the Dietitians of Canada for chairing the Family Health Team (FHT) Registered Dietitian Network.

Centennial Award for Professional Excellence, South-West Ontario (2005)

Awarded by the Rotary Club, Dr. Joseph Lee was selected for his leadership in medicine.