

Pat McLeod

Due to her position as the Executive Director, Pat cannot be formally recognized through this process. However, many team members wanted to recognize the countless time and devotion she puts into the Centre to ensure everything runs smoothly. Pat is the go-to person for everyone here at the Centre, and we want to recognize and appreciate the hard work, open door, problem solving skills, direction and leadership that she provides.